As they aged the two brothers went in two directions, one towards the black magic and the occult for personal power, one towards black magic and the occult (TH) for investigating the abuse of power from occult means. TH learned how to use magic disciplines to aid him in investigating conspiracies. His brother used it to get into a power position in the city and promulgate a body laundering cult. TH created the Crew in order to get on the inside.
Childhood was normal except for his experimentation with and use of occult power.
8. A) Notable moments from childhood: the time he raised a demon in his attic as a teenager and lost control of it, it went around the neighborhood scaring old ladies and children, nearly causing Mr. Binns to crash into the street lamp. TH had to go and hunt it down and banish it.
